MCCRATH, or MCCRAE, Owen, U. E., of the 2nd Batt. King's Royal Regiment of New York, was born in Tryon County, N. Y., now Mohawk Town, Montgomery County, 1745, almost certainly the son of Christopher McGrath and Mary Connor. His parents were married on 24 Feb., 1743-44, at Fort Hunter Church. Three of their children were baptized at Fort Hunter:
William, on 27 May, 1744.
John, on 23 June, 1751.
Sarah, on 21 Jan., 1753.

Owen McGrath was recruited by Lieut. P. Langan on 16 July, 1780. He was at Point Clair, Que., on 17 May, 1781, with his battalion. With him was Dennis McGrath, likely a brother, who enlisted 24 Feb., 1781.

Owen served with his battalion at Oswego and Carleton Island, and was with it when it was employed in the fall and winter of 1783-4 in the rebuilding of Fort Frontenac in preparation for the arrival of the Loyalists in the following spring.

Owen's wife and three daughters were at Cataragui (Kingston) on 4 Dec., 1783, according to a Roll of Loyalists of that date, which reads:
Catharine McEwan, aged 24 years, 2 months.
Sarah McEwan, aged 8 years, 1 month.
Rachel McEwan, aged 4 years, 6 months.
Jane McEwan, aged 1 year, 6 months.

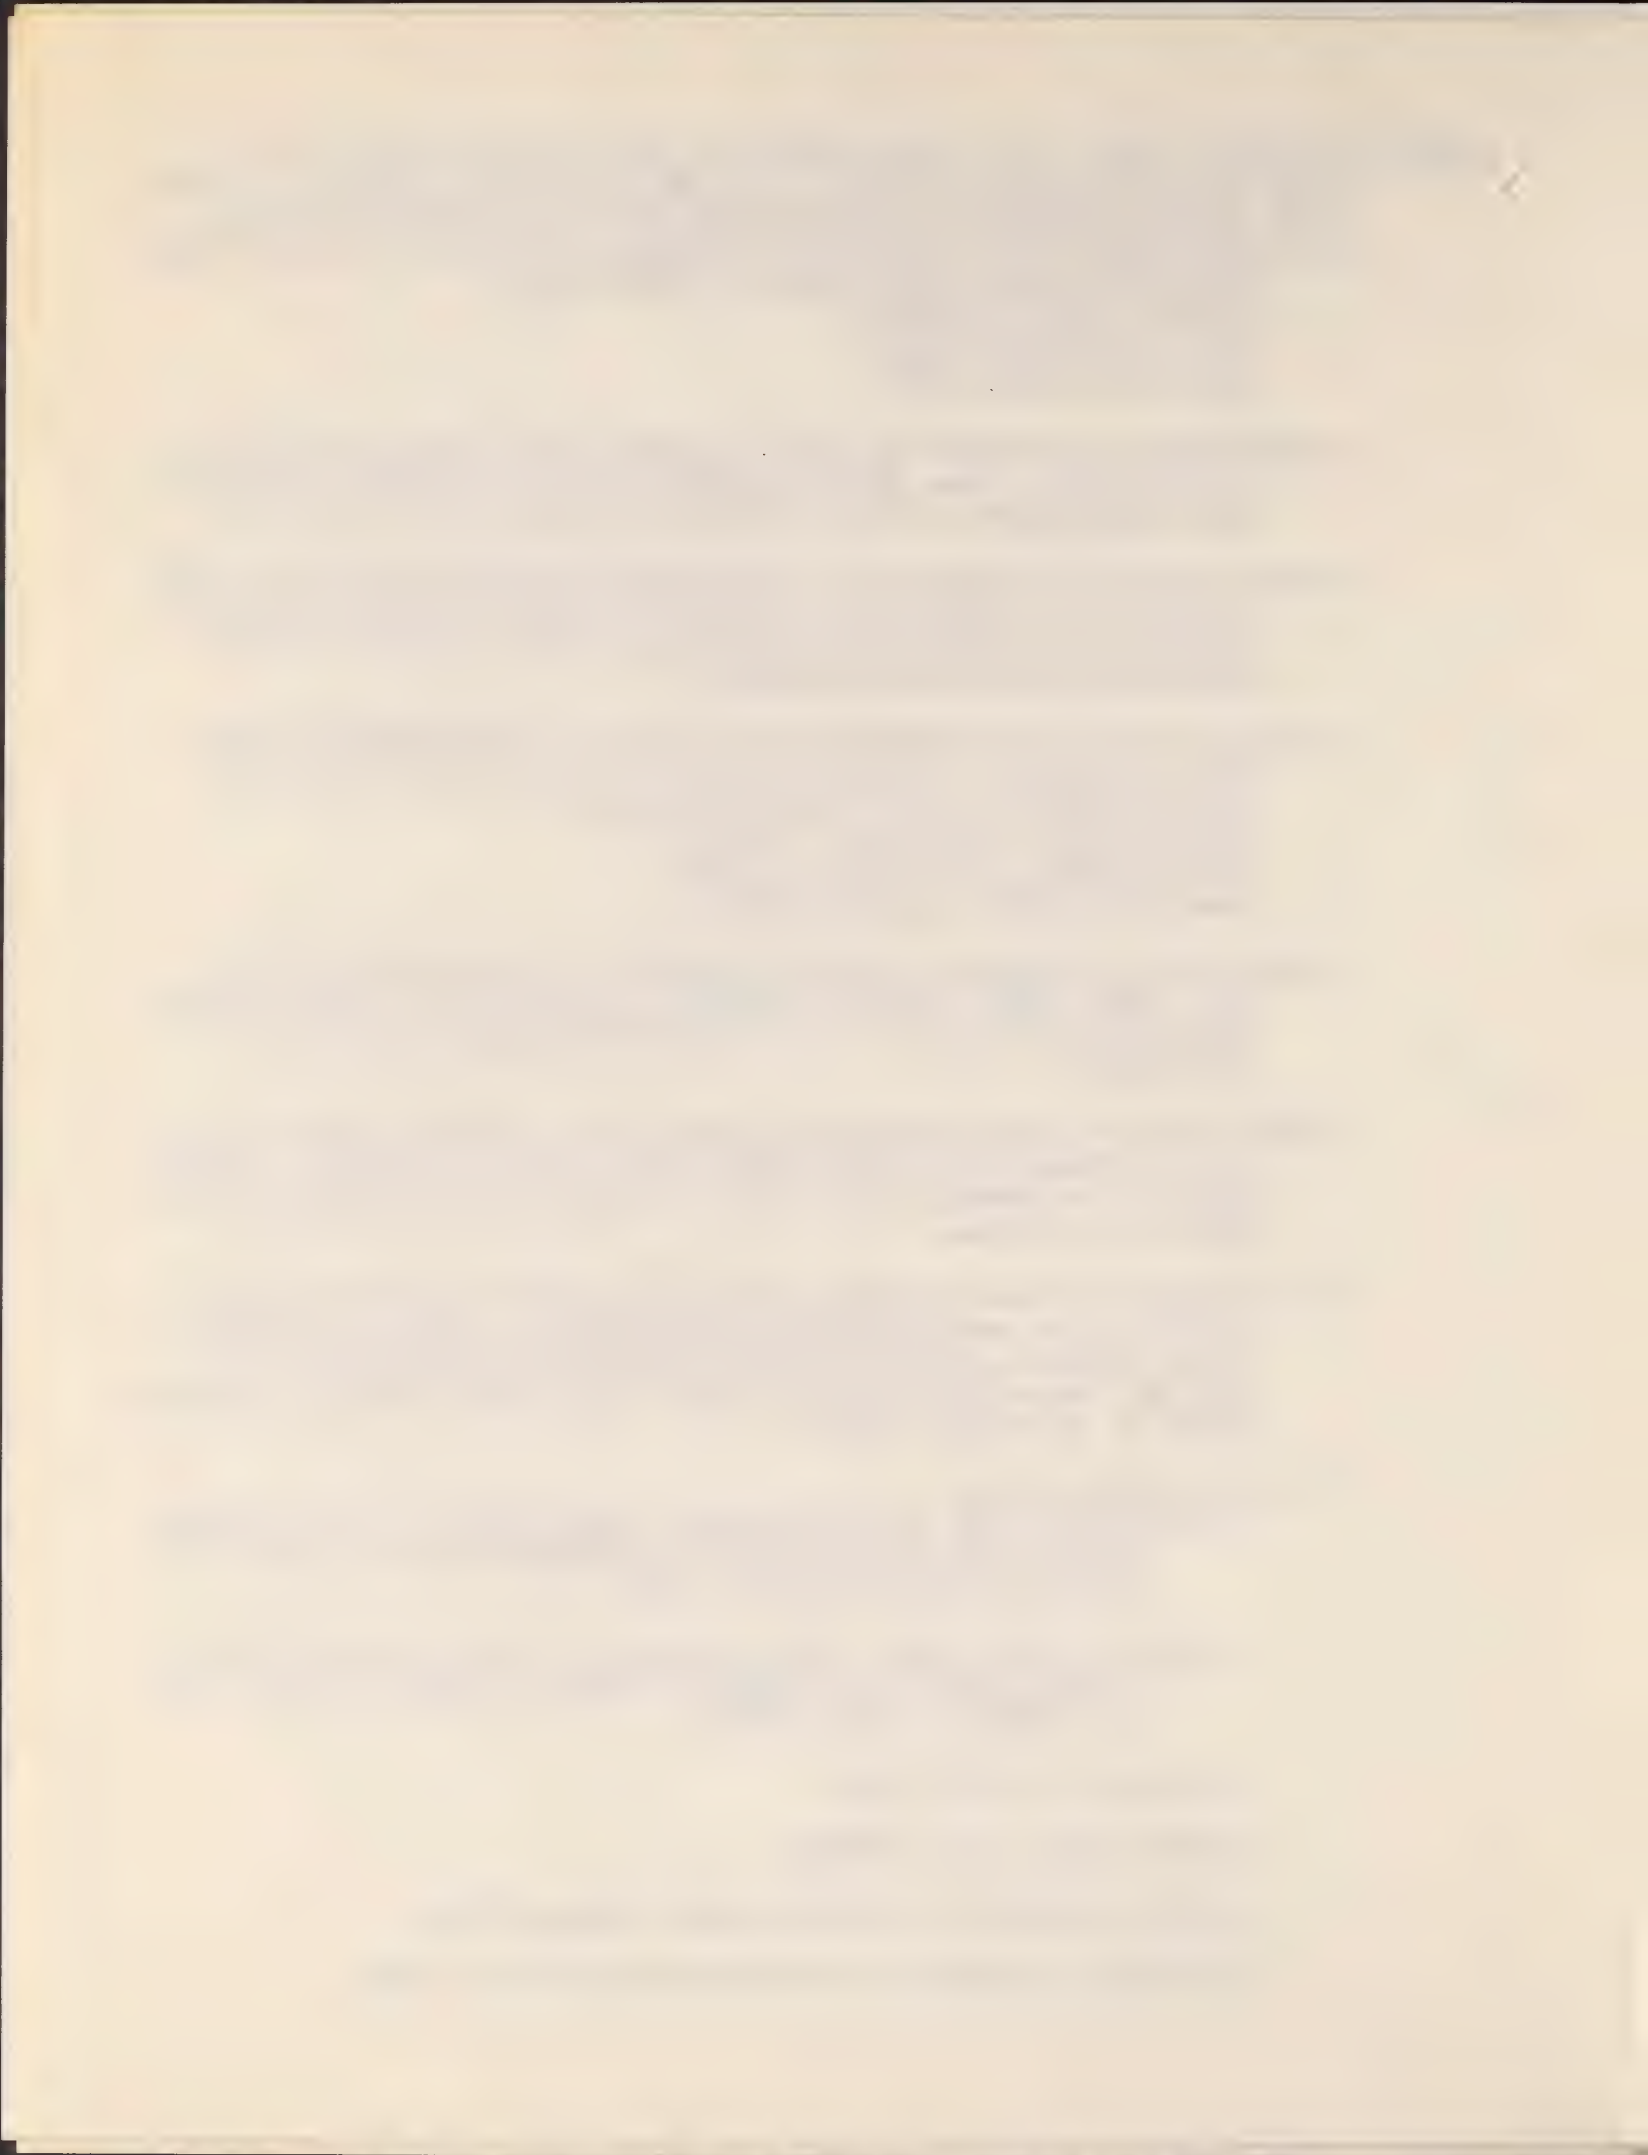

Owen McEwan was discharged with his battalion at Kingston on 24 June, 1784, after which, with the battalion, he settled in Fredericksburgh, where he drew the east half of lot 10, concession 10, concession 3 additional.

Owen's Loyalist Claim, confirming his origin and service, states that he lived on leased land, had 2 cows, 1 mare and colt, 6 sheep, utensils, grain in the ground, all of which was taken from his family after he joined the British.

Owen remained in Fredericksburgh until at least 1797. He must have left by 1808, as no one of that name is recorded in a tax list of 1808. Of his children, only two applied for lands as the children of a Loyalist, thus indicating that most of them removed from the Province, likely to the United States.

The known children were:

1. Christopher, who drew 200 acres of land by Order in Council dated 24 May, 1797. He is likely the Christopher who was buried in Fredericksburgh on 21 Feb., 1803.
2. Hannah, born in Nov., 1775, was wife of Robert Anderson, when, on 18 Nov., 1797, she received 200 acres of land. Her son, Owen, was baptized 12 June, 1799.
3. Rachel, born June, 1779.
4. Jane, born in June, 1782.
5. Owen, baptized at Fredericksburgh 9 Sept., 1788.
6. Katherine, baptized at Fredericksburgh 27 Dec., 1790.

The daughters, Rachel and Jane, applied for land as the daughters of a Loyalist on ~~13 SEP 1797~~ 7 Aug., 1797, when they were recommended for 200 acres "when of age or married." This confirms that they were under twenty-one years on that date, and not married.

7. Samuel, baptized 12 Jan., 1793, and buried 30 Aug., 1794, at Fredericksburgh

In addition to the above children, is William, who may be an older son, who may have been retained in the American Colonies, as likely was his brother, Christopher, because they would soon be of serviceable age.

8. This William, a bachelor, married 2 May, 1791, at Fredericksburgh, Katreen, daughter of John Woodcock, U. E.

Their children, all baptized at Fredericksburgh, were:

1. Katy, baptized 6 Jan., 1794; buried 17 Feb., 1797.
2. John, baptized 27 Jan., 1795.
3. Elishia, baptized 24 July, 1798.
4. Elizabeth, baptized 25 Oct., 1803.
5. Hannah, baptized 25 Oct., 1803.

None of these children drew lands as children of Loyalists.

The son, John, in this family, served in the War of 1812, and died of disease on 30 Apr., 1814. He was survived by his widow, Dorothy, with two children,

1. Anne, born 12 July, 1812.
2. Susannah, born 9 July, 1814.

Dorothy later married Mr. Griffith, and drew militia pension on behalf of her children.

Owen McGrath's wife, Katherine, applied for 200 acres of land, evidently as the daughter of a Loyalist, on 7 Dec., 1797. Granted.

It is also interesting to note that Sir William Johnson, in his will, dated 27 Jan., 1774, gave two hundred acres of land to Mary, daughter of Christopher McGrath, a sister of Owen, U. E.

There is no known reason why Owen's other children did not apply for lands as did the children of other Loyalists.
